In seeking membership of Annandale Sailing Club I acknowledge that sailing is a sport that may be hazardous. I accept that participation in Club events is undertaken at my own risk. I accept full responsibility for those persons named above who are under 18. I also confirm that those boats named above are insured third party to a minimum of £2,000,000.

Members paying for keeping a boat or trailer in the boat park are entitled to do so only for as long as they pay the requisite fees and remain a full member. Non-members are due an annual fee equivalent to the appropriate boat park and/or trailer fees plus an ordinary membership fee and the club reserves the right to sell any boat, trolley or trailer in the boat park to recover unpaid fees and expenses with only any unused balance payable to the owner(s) thereafter.

The club's comprehensive Safety Policy, including its Child and Vulnerable Adult Protection Policy, is available for inspection at the club. As a member it is up to you to read and uphold this policy.

As part of the Safety Policy and for general administration, the club maintains a database of personal details of all club members including family members. These details will not be made available to others unless required by law. But may be shared with other members for club purposes such as when needed to arrange or facilitate a club event. If you do not agree to allow us to use your data in this way you should tick the box

The club uses still and film photography for various purposes. Any member who doesn't wish to appear should tick the box

The club is aware that, at this time of year, for a family, the cost can be high. Therefore, payment of a total of £100 or over may be made in two instalments by means of post-dated cheques.

Your dinghy must be adequately insured to be kept on the premises or sailed at the club. No personally owned equipment is to be stored in the garage or clubhouse. Dinghy spars and accessories must be stored on your dinghy or taken home. Unpaid Boat fees may result in the boat being seized and sold under the Terms of reference for abandoned equipment as found on the website.
